Join us at the 42nd Annual Family Conference

The Annual Family Conference is now less than two months away! It's a wonderful weekend of connection, support, and education for the whole family. Whether you're joining for your first or forty-second time it's a weekend like no other. Visit the conference website at www.ntsadannualfamilyconference.com to learn about the session content, programming and schedule, reserve your hotel room and register to attend.

See photos and testimonials of past conferences, and learn about what's in store for the whole family as we look forward to "Reaching New Heights" together in Denver, CO May 28-31, 2020. See you there!

Helping Hand Assistance is Available to all Attendees

The Helping Hand program offers conference attendance assistance to families and individuals affected by Tay-Sachs, Sandhoff, GM-1 and Canvan. For more information on selling helping Hand raffle tickets to earn a FREE conference registration, or how to apply for a Helping Hand grant, please visit the Helping hand page, here.
